

FARMER NEAR BEACH SHOT BY SHERIFF

BLACKMAIL PLOT CAUSES SHERIFF TO TAKE ACTION

Henry Yunker, Farmer Who Is Shot, Denies Any Knowledge Of Extortion Plot

KU KLUX WARNING GIVEN

Bert Offley, Was Acquitted of Murder, Is Ordered to Leave Community

Beach, N. D., May 8.—Beach was stirred today by two events, one a shooting which grew out of an attempted blackmail and an anonymous warning signed "50 K. K. K." ordering Bert Offley to leave the county and state.

Henry Yunker, a farmer living near here, is in the hospital here following his shooting by Sheriff Stockwell Saturday night.

T. E. Hudson, president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank, had received two letters demanding money. The second was received Saturday, being mailed on the railroad train. It demanded the banker place $2,000 in cash in a tin can at a fence post two miles from town.

Sheriff Stockwell was notified. He and his son went to the place and hid in the darkness. A man drove up in an automobile, got out and looked around. From his hiding place in a clump of Russian thistles the sheriff could see the shoulders and head of the man. The sheriff called to him to throw up his hands. The man made a motion which the sheriff says caused him to think he was reaching for a gun. The sheriff shot the man through the shoulder.

The man shouted for help. He proved to be Henry Yunker, a farmer living in the neighborhood. He denied any knowledge of the alleged blackmailing scheme. He said that he had turned his horses out in that section and was fixing a wire fence to keep them from straying. He had not put his horses out that night until he could fix the fence, he said.

Offley Gets Warning

The circumstances of the Offley affair follow: Bert Offley, who was acquitted of murder in the famous Bowen murder trial which stirred the entire western part of the state, received a letter signed "50 K. K. K." ordering him to leave the county and state within thirty days and threatening dire consequences if he did not. Offley was a constable when a party went to the Bowen home and although he was not the man who fired the shot which killed Bowen, according to witnesses, he was the first tried of several accused of the crime.

Offley lives in Bull Run township about 20 miles south of Beach. He does not expect to leave.

WHEAT ACREAGE IS INCREASED

Stark County Farmers Increase Amount, This Season

Dickinson, N. D., May 8.—Despite the late season which Slope farmers have experienced this year the wheat acreage in Stark county will be greater than that of any other season for the past several years, according to farmers, bankers and other business men who are in close touch with the situation through their activities in financing the planting of the present crop, says the Dickinson Press.

The general opinion is that every farmer has stretched his resources to the utmost in his endeavor to stage a comeback, and is staking all his hopes on favorable crop weather. Only one criticism has been offered and that is the expressed fear that because of the late season the crop has been hurriedly planted without proper preparation of the soil.

Virtually all seeding in the county has been finished. With the exception of late small grain and forage crops, planting is at an end and much of the wheat is already up.

Reports from different sections of the county tend to show that more corn and other fed crops will be planted than ever before.

High winds which prevailed during the past week have been anything but beneficial to the crops. These were checked, however, by a heavy shower Thursday night in which 1.7 of an inch of rain fell.

WILSON MAKES THIRD ATTACK ON SEN. REED

St. Louis, May 8. (By the A. P.)—Referring to United States Senator James A. Reed as a "marplot" former President Wilson in a letter to Governor L. V. Stephens asked the defeat of Missouri's senior senator to "redeem the reputation" of the Democratic party.

It was Mr. Wilson's third letter on the race for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator between Mr. Reed and Breckinridge Long, former third assistant secretary of state in the Wilson administration.

CANDIDATE

HARVEY L. STEGNER.

Bismarck is the home of the candidates. With most of the state officials here candidates for re-election the city also is contributing several other candidates to the Republican and Democratic primaries.

The latest to announce himself is Harvey Stegner, Bismarck insurance man whose announcement is being commented on generally. Mr. Stegner takes the Fargo Forum slogan, "Turn the key to the Bank of North Dakota," as one point in his platform; charge of Twin City financial domination as another, assails both the I. V. A. and the league as having socialistic platforms, says he is for a constitutional convention against state socialism and one-party rule.

Harvey L. Stegner, was born on a farm in western Minnesota. His education was had in the beginning in the public schools of that state and the completion in the University at Valparaiso, Ind.

In 1908, Mr. Stegner adopted North Dakota as his future state, locating on a homestead in the southern part of the then Billings county—now Slope county. Here he continued to farm successfully until 1913, when he entered the business of life insurance, with offices in New England, N. D. Later, in 1916, he moved to Bismarck, in the position of General Agent of the Equitable Life Insurance Company of Iowa.

PROTECTION OF POLICE ASKED BY BRITISHER

War Veteran Said Detectives Tried to Railroad Him For Love Affair

Nowark, N. J., May 8.—A request that the British embassy send an agent to escort him from the station tomorrow so that he would not be molested has been made by Alexander E. Robertson, British war veteran, who planned to go to Washington to press his charges that private detectives attempted to railroad him out of the country because of his efforts to win the hand of Miss Mary Culbertson, daughter of Senator Charles A. Culbertson, of Texas.

Robertson is seeking to have the embassy assist him in obtaining the arrest of John Rhuland and T. Anderson on charges of impersonating federal officers. He already has caused the arrest of John Ellis, another detective, on a charge of kidnapping. The friendship between Robertson and Miss Culbertson was said to have started at the University of Texas three months ago when they were both students there.

DENIAL IS MADE.

New York, May 8.—Denial that attempts were made to drive Alexander Robertson out of the country because of a love affair with a daughter of Senator Culbertson was made by the Burns detective agency which was retained to gather information about him. Robertson's own movements have been of his own accord, the head of the agency said.

The head said that charges that two detectives had impersonated federal officers were all bunk and that John Ellis was not with the bureau.

SENATOR REFUSES INTERVIEW.

Washington, May 8.—Senator Culbertson, Texas, today refused to see newspaper men to discuss charges that private detectives had sought to get Robertson out of the country.

GUARD PASSES 1,000 MARK

The North Dakota National Guard has passed the 1,000 mark in its recruiting campaign in the state. It is announced by the Adjutant-General's office. There are now 1,006 men and 37 officers listed on the guard roster. The latest detachment to be approved after both state and federal inspection is the medical detachment, of Edgemoor, Major Lee B. Green, commanding. Dr. Cecil O. Ferguson is dental officer of the detachment.

To stimulate interest in the guard a mimeographed news sheet called "The Bulletin" has been established by Adjutant-General C. A. Fraser and will be published regularly.

HARDING PLAN OF U. S. BUDGET MAKES SAVING

Director Dawes Report Says President's Commission Saves $1,600,000,000

DETAILS WORKINGS

Director Explains Plan by Which Republican Administration Plan Succeeds

Washington, May 8.—Government expenditures for the fiscal year 1922 will show a reduction of more than $1,600,000,000 from the actual expenditures for the preceding fiscal year, 1921, Congress was informed today by President Harding in transmitting the report of Director Dawes of the budget on economies and savings in governmental business.

Director Dawes estimated that government expenditures for the current fiscal year which were given in the December budget estimates as $3,967,222,366 will be at least $45,550,336 less, or approximately $3,921,672,030.

As compared with 1921, he continued, there has been a reduction of $907,500,000 in expenditures for the operation of the routine business of the government subject generally to executive control. Of this sum he attributed $250,000,000 to the imposition of the executive plan and pressure on the routine business organization of the government under the new system inaugurated by the Budget System.

Report of Director.

The report of Director Dawes was submitted to the House Appropriations committee by the president in connection with a pending resolution by Representative Byrns, Democrat, Tennessee asking the president to inform this house in what ways direct savings of $24,000,000 and indirect savings of $104,000,000, previously announced by the president, had been accomplished by the Budget Bureau during its first six months of operation, had been made.

Director Dawes presented in detail with accompanying tables and statements the comparative expenditures for the past and present fiscal years divided into items representing those which were charged to executive control and others such as public debt and similar accounts which were considered at apart from the subject of routine government expenditure. He also submitted exhaustive reports of the government savings accomplished through inter-departmental transfers of surplus supplies and other economy methods put into effect by the budget bureau, itemizing thousands of transactions involving ships, shoes, sealing wax and all the many articles and commodities utilized by the government together with the amount of saving realized in each case.

Details Savings. The budget director further reported that the savings reserve against current appropriations of $112,000,000 set up by the departments and establishments in August, 1921, in response to executive request, had been increased, notwithstanding reappropriations by Congress of more than $7,000,000 of this reserve for other purposes, to the approximate sum of $136,000,000. Only such part of these reductions as are real savings and not postponed expenditures were included in the general estimate of savings he added.

As a still greater reduction, Director Dawes declared that the present estimated expenditures for 1922 for the operation of the routine business of the government, after eliminating expenditures of $7,500,000 authorized by Congress after the submission of the budget providing for representation of the United States at the Brazilian centennial exposition, seed loans, and fulfillment of the treaty with Columbia, as compared with the December budget estimates, showed an excess of only $25,767,457, on a total of $1,738,375,672 or a discrepancy of only about 1-1/2 per cent.

LIQUOR SEARCH IS MADE HERE

Still Found in Operation in One Place, Report of Officers

A place was found Saturday night in search of the home of Lawrence Schneider, 500 Fourteenth street, the search being made by State's Attorney McCurdy, F. L. Watkins and federal officers. It was said by Mr. Watkins that a complete still in operation was found, three quarts of moonshine, 50 gallons of wheat mash and a pint of whiskey.

A previous search, it was reported, resulted in finding a still at Raphael Moserbrucker's home, the still being in operation. Three gallons of moonshine and 30 gallons of wheat mash were found.

Charles Walters' place was searched Friday night, part of a still and a bottle containing a gallon of moonshine was found in a bed. This was at Eleventh and Thayer.

Several other places were searched for liquor but none was found.

FORMAL PLEDGE BY MEXICO IS DEMAND OF U. S.

Recognition Will Not be forthcoming Without Guarantees, It Is Stated

MAY NAME COMMISSION

Appointment of International Commission Is Suggested As Way Out

Washington, May 8.—The American government is standing unalterably for the guarantee requested of the Obregon government; and his advisers have given on definite assurance that the guarantees would be given in order to take formal recognition of their government possible.

Many intimations that the Mexican authorities might be favorably disposed toward the American requests have reached the state department but officials here will not be satisfied with anything less than a formal pledge by the Obregon government itself. It was said at the state department today. Consequently the situation remains just where it was when the terms of recognition were submitted to Mexico City in June, 1921.

MAY NAME COMMISSION

Appointment of an international commission to consider all the issues involved in the recognition of the Obregon government in Mexico has been suggested in some official quarters as a solution of continued failure of the United States government and Mexico City authorities to agree on a recognition program.

Although the United States still insists that a positive guarantee against discriminatory provisions of the Mexican constitution of 1917 must precede recognition it was intimated that a committee to continue negotiations would be agreed to here if it were suggested formally by General Obregon.

FIRE CAUSES $1,200 LOSS

Early Morning Blaze Damages McElvain Home

Fire which broke out at 3 o'clock this morning caused damage estimated at $1,200 to the home of E. A. McElvain, 501 Fifteenth street. The fire originated from a kerosene oil heater, the firemen reported.

That much of the value of a fire truck is in getting to the fire quickly was shown by this run, firemen said. The run was made in a very few minutes with the new truck and chemical only used in extinguishing the fire. Had horses been used the house probably would have burned down, firemen said.

The interior of the house was gutted by the fire.

COUNTY SEAT FIGHT IS ON

Solen and Selfridge After Scalp Of Ft. Yates

Selfridge, N. D., May 8.—Solen and Selfridge will endeavor to win the seat of Sioux county away from Fort Yates at the coming primary elections. Selfridge has continuously contested the right of Fort Yates to the county seat which was originally designated by Governor Hanna's appointees as commissioners when the district was organized.

Recently passed statutes provide that a county seat contender must receive petitions from five-eighths of the number of voters who cast ballots at the last preceding general election. The situation provides a race between Selfridge and Solen, to determine which may be able to secure the signatures needed, the law itself precluding the possibility of a three-cornered fight on a removal question.

Selfridge has named a campaign committee composed of B. L. Snead, J. A. Nagel, Fred Rott, W. O. Ordway and A. E. Spencer.

FEDERATION OF LABOR MEETING IS UNDER WAY

Convention Opened Sunday in Patterson's Hall With 100 Delegates Here

MASS MEETING HELD

Various Phases of Labor Movement Touched on in Public Meeting at Auditorium

The second day of the convention of the State Federation of Labor got under way here today with about 100 delegates and labor men present from other cities in the state. The convention continues through tomorrow.

Welcome to the city was given by Mayor A. P. Lenhart when the convention opened its sessions Sunday morning in Patterson hall. Response was made on behalf of the federation and there were informal talks. Lee Brundage, of Minot, president of the federation, presided.

Meetings were held yesterday afternoon and evening and sessions will be held today and tomorrow. Meetings are open to the public, it is announced.

A mass meeting was held in the city Auditorium last night, to which the public was invited. Several hundred people were present. President Brundage, introducing the speakers, thanked the city commission for use of the Auditorium and the people of Bismarck for courtesies extended.

Mass Meeting Held

Stephen Ely, president of the Montana Federation of Labor, E. G. Hall, of the Minnesota federation and Paul Smith, of Illinois, representing President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor, were the speakers. Mr. Ely spoke of the movement in general and of the nation-wide mine strike now in progress in particular. He declared the mine strike was justified because the mine owners wanted the union to surrender a fair wage and asserted that the wage scale the miners asked was declared by impartial investigators to be such that the miners would be able to live on it. He said the miners were accused of seeking to preserve an inflated wage scale, but asserted that the mine wage scale signed in 1919 prevailed during 1920 when prices rose to the peak point and the wages were inadequate to meet the rise in the cost of living.

Mr. Hall, who said he made cigars in Bismarck in 1889, spoke of the union label and its importance to the trade unionists, and Mr. Smith spoke of the labor movement from the aspect of the American Federation. Mr. Ely denounced the "American plan" of open shop operation and declared that since the close of the war there had been a gigantic war waged upon the trade unions.

Explains Compensation Law

Yesterday afternoon Richard Jones, of Kansas City, representing the United States employment service, spoke of the work of the service. J. A. Kitchen, ex-officio of the Workmen's Compensation Commission, talked briefly on the work of the bureau and was followed by S. S. McDonald, who went into detail as to the operations of the bureau. Mr. McDonald asserted the compensation act was much misunderstood. He referred to the compensation act of the province of Ontario, Canada. He said it was a football of politics there for several years but now is accepted by all parties.

Mr. McDonald declared that the majority of employers are not against the law. He said that during his service as member of the bureau some of the biggest employers in the state had become his very good friends, and that some of them had assisted the bureau materially in carrying out the law. He said there is a compensation (Continued on Page 8)

EXTENSION OF C. E. SOCIETY IS OUTLINED

Field Secretary for Three States Will be Employed for Organization

OFFICERS ARE CHOSEN

Mrs. W. E. Butler, Re-elected President and Miss Beach Re-elected Secretary

Plans for extension of the work of the inter-denominational Protestant Christian Endeavor Society evolved from the state convention which ended here last night, it was announced today by state officers. It is planned to employ a secretary to have charge of extension of work in the states of South Dakota, Montana and North Dakota. Rev. E. P. Gates, of Boston, Mass., general secretary, informed the state officers he would assign a field man for this work.

Mrs. W. E. Butler, of Bismarck, was re-elected president of the state society for the ensuing year, and Dickinson was voted the next state convention. Other officers chosen are: Vice-president, Clarence Johnson, Jamestown; secretary, Miss Henrietta Beach, Bismarck (re-elected); treasurer, Teuben Teichman, LaMoure; junior superintendent, Miss Margaret Bratt, Fargo; intermediate superintendent, Ethel Hauser, Jamestown; Quiet Hour and Tenth Legion superintendent, M. W. Smeltzer, Beach; missionary superintendent, Dorothy Brenton, Wilton.

The convention here exceeded the expectations of the officers. Although the rain kept a number of persons away who intended to motor to Bismarck the attendance was larger than was expected. Young people from all parts of the state were present. The meetings were enthusiastic and helpful. The Christian Endeavor Society had languished in North Dakota until Mrs. W. E. Butler took charge as state president. Under her guidance the organization has shown new vitality and the convention recognized her work by choosing her again for the place.

Rev. E. P. Gates spoke Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church to an audience which filled every seat in the church. Rev. C. E. Hetzler, field secretary for West Virginia, spoke in the evening to a large audience. The afternoon meeting also was well attended.

Thanks Those Who Aid.

Mrs. Butler made the following report for the resolutions committee last night: "I did not care for this report because of the nice things that they might have said of us here in Bismarck but I did not want to thank the people and the interests that made it possible for us to do what we did for the Christian Endeavor of North Dakota. First, I thank the convention committee that helped me so loyally during all the work.

"Then I want to thank the citizens of Bismarck for opening up their homes for us to entertain these people and I thank the many kind friends that helped us to finance this convention.

"I thank the business houses and hotels for their courtesy in entertaining and for decorating so splendidly (Continued on Page 8)

Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy Joins in British Plea To Soviet

WOULD GUARD LOAN

Offer Conditioned on Allies Being Allowed to See Money Actually Invested

AWAIT U. S. ACTION.

Paris, May 8.—By the A. P.—"France," said a high official of the government today, "will not recognize the Soviet government until the United States does. 'France has kept a free hand in this matter and it makes no difference what action the Genoa conference may take'."

Genoa, May 8 (By the A. P.)—Prime Minister Lloyd George of Great Britain and Foreign Minister Schanzer of Italy addressed today a strong appeal to the Russian representatives at the conference here urging them to accept the allied memorandum in its main points and promising Russia an international loan.

This was with the understanding that the leading countries would thus provide funds for the reconstruction of Russia.

The allies would claim the right to make sure, however, that the money loaned was actually invested in the work of reconstruction.

It was asserted that although the proposed loan would amount to 300,000,000 gold francs it has been declared that the Russians were asking for three billion gold rubles or 25 times as much as the allied offer.

The Russian delegation had previously issued a statement denouncing the efforts it alleges France and Belgium had made to wreck the conference. The statement called attention that these powers were predicting that Russia's refusal to accept the memorandum would break up the conference when they had not themselves signed the memorandum.

M. Teitelcherin, it was learned, had received instructions from Premier Lenin which are reported to embody an emphatic order not to accept clause one of the allied memorandum which forbids Bolshevistic propaganda abroad, virtually restricts Russia to her boundaries and asks Russian neutrality between the Turks and the Greeks.

The pens and pencils stolen were valued at about $500. Four dozen fountain pens and three dozen pencils were returned.

DENY FAILURE TO AID LANGER

Friends of Governor Nestos deny assertions made by friends of William Langer to the effect that the Governor did not aid the Langer campaign after Langer had been nominated at Minot. They pointed out that although Langer was tied up in court terms at Minot as state's attorney Mr. Nestos spoke in the campaign and did not leave for Norway until August 5, after the primary.

Langer's friends reiterate, however, that Nestos gave his candidacy no real aid.

ORGANIZATION OF RESERVE OF ARMY TAKEN UP

Major R. W. Whittier, U. S. A., Comes to Bismarck to Confer Upon Organization

APPLICATIONS ARE ASKED

Dr. E. P. Quain and E. J. Taylor Of Bismarck Assisting in The Organization

Major R. W. Whittier, Medical Corps of the U. S. Army, is in Bismarck in the interest of the Organized Reserves of the Army. He has come from Minneapolis where he is on duty with the 38th Division of the Organized Reserves, to assist Dr. E. P. Quain who is a reserve officer and in command of the 379th Medical Regiment (Reserve) being organized in North and South Dakota.

E. J. Taylor of Bismarck, a captain in the Organized Reserves, has been assigned to headquarters of the 379th Medical Regiment and is assisting in completing the organization.

The National Defense Act as amended in 1920, provides for a definite military policy for the United States, prescribing that in the future the army or the United States shall consist of three components: The Regular Army, the National Guard, and the Organized Reserves. The law referred to provides that the names, numbers and designations of divisions and subordinate units thereof that served during the World War, shall be preserved as far as practicable.

Under the legislative sanction mentioned above, the War Department is now engaged in organizing 27 divisions of the Organized Reserves. These divisions will make up 9 army corps which in turn will make up three field armies, and will cover the entire continental area of the United States. The states of North Dakota, Minnesota and Iowa have been allotted as the territory from which the 38th Division is to be organized, with Division headquarters in Minneapolis. In addition to organizing units of the 38th Division, other forces will be formed in these three states consisting of General Headquarters Units, Field Army Troops and Army Corps Troops. The 379th Medical Regiment of which Col Quain is the Commanding Officer is a unit of the Third U. S. Field Army.

Plan of War Department

It is the plan of the War Department to assign Reserve Officers to all these units so that in the event of a great national emergency against the War Department will be able to call to the colors the various units, each having its complete complement of officers and perhaps all of the non-commissioned officers and specialists.

A great many more Reserve Officers are needed for the many units to be organized and everything is being done to stimulate the interest especially of the ex-officer of the World War whose training and experience gained during his active service ought not to be lost to the government.

Many of the units are rapidly filling up and those reserve officers who have had a chance to familiarize themselves with the plans are becoming enthusiastic. Most of the effort of army officials now is directed toward obtaining the necessary officer personnel for the reserve units but enlistments of ex-service men who can qualify as non-commissioned officers or specialists are being made.

Anyone desiring to get in touch with army matters may do so by writing to the headquarters of the 38th division, Kasota Bldg., Minneapolis, Minn.

UNIQUE STREET CARS IN MEXICO

Mexico Motor-Driven Street Cars Built on Dodge Brothers Chassis

Almost coincident with the successful experiment in Port au Prince, Haiti, comes a report from Mexico City of a system of street cars built on Dodge Brothers chassis. According to William Benbow, Dodge Brothers Mexico City dealer, the motor railway was worked out only after a long series of experiments by the Monte Alto Railroad Co. For the real test of the practicability of the system, the Dodge Brothers motor was chosen. The results were decisive.

"It kicked their cars up the steepest hills and around the worst curves at a speed of 26 miles per hour," says Mr. Benbow, "and that is just about as rapid movement as any man in his senses wants on that particular railroad."

The street car chassis weighs approximately 6,600 pounds, with a wheelbase of seven feet. The transmission is adjusted with the original rear axle of the Dodge Brothers chassis, and sprockets for the chains are placed in the naves of the wheels. The diameter of the wheels is 22 inches. With this car the railway company claims to be able to carry 40 passengers and with the addition of a trailer 80 can be transported. The 15-mile trip from Mexico City into the interior takes about an hour.

AT THE THEATERS

CAPITOL

For the second afternoon something different in the realm of the photoplay, the management of the Capitol Theater has something special to offer Monday when there will be presented for the first time in Bismarck the thrilling heart-interest photo-drama, "Why Girls Leave Home." Although the theme and title of the production are from the great American story of the same name which thrilled theatre goers a generation ago, the Warner Brothers, who present the picture claim that there is not a bit of maudlin melodrama in the entire story. One prominent reviewer has stated that the production struck him as "a blend of 'Way Down East' and 'Humoresque,'" although the picture itself resembles neither of the two productions mentioned.

ELTINGE

Fighting on the fore top of schooner with the vessel rolling and pitching and the mast swaying, is no pleasant job, according to Rudolph Valentino, playing the leading male role and Walter Long, the villainous captain of the hell-ship in "Moran of the Lady Letty," a Paramount picture which will be shown at the Eltinge theater Monday and Tuesday.

The fight scenes were filmed aboard the ship in San Francisco Bay. The two men were at least sixty feet above the deck. The fight started on deck and continued on up the rigging until they reached the fore top. From there they fought on out to the end of a spar. After a final struggle, the villain drops into the ocean. For this latter shot, a camera was lashed to another spar, and thus a close-up view of the knock-out punch and the fall was obtained.

Dorothy Dalton plays the featured role of "Moran." The picture is an adaptation of the sea story by Frank Norris.

COURT HOLDS AUDITOR NEED NOT ASK BIDS

Tribune Institutes Case to Determine Status of Election Supplies

While disapproving of the policy of county auditors letting supplies without competitive bids, Judge Nussle today sustained a demurrer of County Attorney McCurdy to a suit started by the Bismarck Tribune company to compel the board of county commissioners or county auditor to ask bids for the election supplies for Burleigh county.

County Auditor Johnson took the position that the letting of this work was his own personal matter and he placed the contract for the Burleigh county supplies with the Knight Printing company of Fargo, refusing to allow any of the Bismarck printing plants or stationery concerns bid on the various supplies.

Judge E. T. Burke appeared for the Tribune in Judge Nussle's chambers this afternoon and asked that a restraining order be granted to prevent County Auditor Johnson from awarding these supplies without bid or price to the Fargo concern.

Mr. McCurdy while denouncing as vicious the system followed in not asking for bids declared that the law gave the county auditor this power. He demurred to the Tribune's complaint, in the friendly suit brought and the case will be appealed to the supreme court in an attempt to ascertain whether supplies in excess of $200 can be let without competitive bids.

A month ago the board of county commissioners consented to receive a bid from The Tribune company for the election supplies. The Knight Printing company refused to bid declaring that it was within the province of the county auditor to let this work without bids and without interference from the county board. County Auditor Johnson refused to consider the Tribune's bid declaring that he had already let the work to the Fargo concern without any price agreed upon.

Affidavits were presented to the court showing that in many counties, it is the practice of the county auditors to secure bids on these election supplies from the various printing concerns especially from those printing concerns which are resident in the county and are taxpayers. This Mr. Johnson refused to do. All of the supplies can be purchased in Bismarck from the various printing plants and stationery stores, but Mr. Johnson declares that this business will go to Fargo without any price.

Asked to tell what price he would pay for the supplies at a meeting of the Board of County Commissioners Friday, he refused to answer telling all those seeking this information that it was his legal right to place the work wherever he pleased and without any bids or prices.

Judge Nussle and County Attorney McCurdy pointed out the lack of law on this point which lets down the bars for graft in county printing. They both urged the necessity of some explicit decision from the supreme court or in event that cannot be secured on the basis of the law that steps be taken to correct the law so that the taxpayers can be protected against county auditors who refuse to call for competitive bids on such work. The election supplies range in some counties from $500 to as high as $3,000 and $4,000.

Many county auditors ask for bids as a matter of public policy and to prevent criticism of taxpayers. As regards other than election supplies the law is very explicit and directs that bids be called for.

An appeal from Judge Nussle's decision has been made.

Printing concerns in Bismarck have repeatedly protested against discrimination practiced by County Auditor Johnson, but without avail.

CAN'T GET CARS FAST ENOUGH

W. E. Lahr Makes Trip to Twin Cities to Get Cars

W. E. Lahr of the Lahr Motor Sales Company returned yesterday from Minneapolis where he went in an effort to obtain deliveries of Willys-Knight, Overland and Nash cars.

"We haven't been able to get cars out of the factory fast enough to take care of the demand," said Mr. Lahr, "and I thought surely I could obtain a few cars at Minneapolis, but I found the branches with a lot of orders and no stock."

Mr. Lahr stated that the buying public evidently realizes that automobile prices have struck bottom and that from now on it will be a matter of his firm being able to make deliveries.

SEES BEST CROP IN 39 YEARS

Dr. J. H. Worst is Pleased With Outlook in State

Minot, N. D., May 8.—Crop prospects in western North Dakota have not been better, if as good in the 39 years that John H. Worst, commissioner of immigration and former president of the North Dakota Agricultural college has been in the state, according to a statement made recently by Dr. Worst while he was in Minot.

"I cannot recall a year since I came to North Dakota 39 years ago when the prospects for a crop were as good in western North Dakota as they are today," said Dr. Worst. "I have made an examination of many fields on my trip through the western part of the state and this investigation reveals that moisture is down between five and six feet. Although the spring is a little late about one-third of the crop in this section is winter rye and is doing exceptionally well."

"My idea is that we are in the beginning of a long delayed cycle of wet years. It has been proved that once the ground becomes thoroughly soaked it will supply the nucleus of moisture for several good crops."

Dr. Worst expressed his approval of and interest in the "100,000 more" campaign to bring settlers into western North Dakota. "This campaign is moving along smoothly," he said. "Real estate firms in Iowa, Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota have had representatives in this city during the past week making local connections."

A number of families have already moved into the state in the past two weeks and they report that more are coming. About 40 units of the "100,000 more" organization have now been formed and the aggregate sum raised amounts to more than $12,000.

VOLGA FAMINE NOT AS BAD AS IT WAS PAINTED

Many More Thousands Would Doubtlessly Have Died, However, But For U. S. Aid

CANNIBALISM REPORTED

Death Rate, In a Few Cases, Has Reached as High As 65 Per Cent

Samara, Russia, May 8.—(The Associated Press)—Only a complete, careful census of the survivors would reveal the exact toll in human lives of the Volga famine of 1921-1922, but, terrible as has been the death rate during the ghastly winter just ended, it is now clear to the observer that the great majority of the population has, some way or another, managed to live through it.

Estimates and predictions made last summer, that 5,000,000, 10,000,000 or even 15,000,000 of the Volga valley's population would die before spring unless fed from abroad, and that several millions would die regardless of the assistance then being rushed toward them, are not borne out by the evidence. It is now clear to the observer that the great majority of the population has, some way or another, managed to live through it.

In some villages farthest removed from the railways, where cannibalism has in some cases been resorted to by the hunger-stricken population and the general suffering has been almost unimaginable to the western mind, the death rate has been 30, 40 and even as high as 65 per cent of the population. Famine such as this, however, has been the exception, rather than the rule, in Samara province.

Doubtless many thousands would have died in every "volost," or county, had not American and other aid been at hand for the children. The Soviet government as well as foreign organizations has assisted the local peasant authorities and has doled out its meager store of food in the communities which needed it most.

But it now appears that it was the very nature, physical and mental, of the Volga peasant that enabled him to live through the year of stomach-gnawing hunger that would have taken much heavier toll among a population less inured to hardships from childhood.

Hundreds of thousands of them have died in Samara province which, before the famine, had a population of 2,700,000. Perhaps the death rate has been 10 or even 15 per cent, but the majority of the peasant stomachs have digested the clay grass, weeds and other bread substitutes.

Even from the worst-stricken villages, the peasants who came to the railway stations driving camels, horses and oxen attached to sleighs to be laden with food for their children, as a whole appeared ruddy, strong and even smiling after a six months diet of atrocious bread substitutes that would have put an American city dweller in a hospital in a week and in the graveyard in a fortnight.

Some of them, more canny than the others, doubtless had saved and hidden real grain to last them through the winter, but the majority of those living underwent the ages-old test of the survival of the physically fittest and were helped through it by their fatalism that taught them not to worry over their troubles.

COUNTIES BURY THE HATCHET

Old Claims Between Renville and Ward Counties Settled

Minot, May 8.—Renville and Ward counties have "buried the hatchet." There was an informal ceremony at Mohall attended by the county officials of Renville county and Commissioners P. Vandewater, Alfred Haldi, A. S. Spicher and L. F. Tottner of the present Ward county board, and Olaf Lokensgard, a former commissioner, together with V. E. Stenersen, assistant state's attorney.

For 11 years the two counties have battled, at least figuratively, to determine which should pay for the care of a public charge—Charles D. Graves. The dispute dates back to the date of the division of Ward county. Graves was a charge at that time. Being classed as a liability he was not claimed by the new county of Renville just formed. In one sense of the word the Renville county forces had the point of vantage to the extent that Ward county was caring for the man at the county farm.

The two boards got together yesterday and the claim of Ward county of $4,000 was compromised, Renville issuing a warrant for $1,500 in favor of Ward county and assuming liability for the care of the man, who is now receiving treatment at St. Joseph's hospital. The settlement makes unnecessary litigation which loomed up as possible as the only means of disposing of the matter. The records show that while Graves at one time held a claim at Grano, it appears that he disposed of this and moved from there.

WARD CASE UP JUNE 2

Minot, N. D., May 8.—An appeal from a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the case of Mary Keller versus Peter Reichart, et al., from Ward county will be argued in the state supreme court at Bismarck June 2.

The case originated in county court, when that court refused to recognize the will presented by Mary Keller, and which it was claimed was written and signed by Reichart a short time before he died in a Minot hospital leaving his estate to her, and not providing for his relatives.

Miss Keller and Reichart are said to have been sweethearts. The relatives of Reichart presented another will, made by Reichart before the one which was held by Miss Keller. The plaintiff appealed from coun-

"EQUAL RACING RIGHTS" NEW GOAL OF BRITISH WOMEN

COUNTRESS OF WILTON

By NEA Service.

London, May 8.—Now that Britain women have the ballot, seats in Parliament and any number of magistracies, they're out for equal rights along another line—in the horse-racing field!

They're invading the last ditch held exclusively by mere men.

Women always have been interested in the races as spectators. But now they're appearing as owners of racing stables. They're training their own horses. They're hiring jockeys and putting them in their own colors.

Take the Countess of Wilton, for instance. She has her own extensive stable of racers. Her jockeys are clothed in an attractive mauve with silver braid and silver cap.

ty court to district court, and got a decision, deciding that the will made by Reichart bequeathing his property to her, was valid.

The defendants then appealed to the supreme court.

FAIR PLAY IS ASKED BY U. S.

Allied Reparations Commission Working Against Us

Sofia, May 8.—American business men here complain that the members of the Allied Reparations Commission which controls the Bulgarian national budget and limits the country's expenditures are using their official positions to further the enterprises of their country and that discrimination is being practiced against the United States. The membership of the commission is limited now to British, French and Italians.

The complaints become so emphatic lately that Charles Wilson, American minister, had to make representations to the commission on behalf of the United States government.

The Bulgarian government has shown a predilection for American industrial concerns not only because of their businesslike methods, favorable prices and high quality of goods but because the Bulgarians are anxious to cultivate closer relations with America, for which Bulgarians have a strong sentimental attachment.

Much regret is expressed that the United States is not represented on the Reparations Commission, because it is believed an American member could act as arbitrator in the many disputes that come before the Allied Commissioners.

The American engineering firms, James Stewart & Company, of New York, and MacDonald & Company, of Chicago, have offered to construct a

DANISH GOVT. IS CRITICIZED

Claim Made That They Are Giving Farmers Too Much

Copenhagen, May 8.—Protection of the interests of the farmer has become an important issue in the Danish Parliament as in the United States congress.

On the one hand the government is being criticized by the trade unionists and some other political organizations on the ground that the government is treating the farmers too paternally. On the other hand the Danish Farmers' Association, a strong organization, is hectoring the government for not protecting the farmers' interests and for alleged failure to fulfill the government's policy of strict economy in state affairs.

The farmers' association is threatening to form an independent political party unless the government takes care of their interests more satisfactorily.

As showing need of greater economy in government affairs it is pointed out that the Danish state railways—and nearly all of the railways in Denmark are owned by the government—show a net loss for the last month of 38,400,000 kroner (about $7,680,000 at current rates of exchange.)

Higher wages coupled with increased passenger fares and freight rates and state official management are blamed here as the chief reasons for this costly result of allowing the state to own and operate the railways.

MISS ROCHE HEADS FOREIGN INFORMATION SERVICE

BY ALICE ROHE
The busiest woman in New York—Who is she?
Josephine Roche.

Why? Well, could a woman sit in a New York office surrounded by the problems of sixteen nationalities, her mental fingers on the pulse of each of them, without being almost as busy as half a dozen international conferences put together?

This remarkable young woman, Vassar, A. B.; Columbia, A. M.; chief probation officer and director of girls' work in the juvenile court of Denver; inspector of amusements and policeman of Denver; special investigator National Consumers' League and too many other titles representing public service to be enumerated, is doing more to solve America's so-called foreign problems than any other one individual in the United States.

Many Sections
Director of Foreign Language Information Service, she has not only worked out a perfectly co-ordinated system of interpreting America to the alien and the alien to America, but she has, through practical proof of its vital need, secured financial backing.

A personally conducted tour by Miss Roche of the headquarters gives one quite a traveled feeling. "This is the Italian section," she said, "and the Lithuanian, Czechoslovak, Polish—" tiers and boundaries we visited 16 nationalities, all represented by men and women of fine education.

Eager to Learn
"We serve sixteen nationalities," said Miss Roche. "Czechoslovak, Danish, Dutch, Finnish, German, Hungarian, Italian, Jewish, Yugoslav, Lithuanian, Norwegian, Polish, Russian, Swedish and Ukrainian.

"Assimilation cannot be forced on the immigrant," continued Miss Roche. "The foreign born are best fitted to work out their own problems of adjustment and they show a pathetic desire to be a part of rather than a problem of our life."

"Our work is divided into two parts, making our laws and life understandable to the foreign born and secondly, giving the native born an understanding of the problems, the injustices done the foreign born."

Statistically there isn't a loose end in the work of which Miss Roche is director, but even the perfect system does not overshadow the great human appeal.

PLEA MADE FOR MODIFIED TARIFF ON DYE STUFFS

Also on Scientific Apparatus, Glassware and Better Grade Chemicals

CALLED WAR INDUSTRIES

Fargo, N. D., May 8.—America should protect the industries along scientific lines which sprung up during the war period, Sidney H. Hull, professor of chemistry and physics at Fargo College said this morning in addressing the members of the North Dakota Academy of Science here. He pleaded for a modified tariff on dye stuffs, scientific apparatus, glassware and better grade chemicals. These industries had come to life during the war period because they were needed, he said; they were still in need of some protection and it would be neither fair nor wise to force enterprises, on which millions of dollars had been spent, out of business or to put the country back where it was before the war as regards facilities for manufacturing these things.

"I am not advocating a tariff which will allow building up of unfair prices," he said, "but one which will give an opportunity for competition to spring up in this country between the companies; will allow the American companies to pay a decent wage and permit them to build up a fund of technical knowledge by research."

Mr. Hull told, first, how the pressure of wartime demand brought to life, dye, chemical and glass factories throughout the country until, he said, $150,000,000 to $200,000,000 had been invested in dye industries alone. He told how one printing ink company in Cincinnati had gathered together a

GROUP OF "IRENE" BEAUTIES

The success of "Irene," the greatest of all musical comedies coming to the Auditorium May 17, supports the theory that the liting melodies and highly amusing comedy lines of other days are possible of achievement in these days of jazz and shimmy dancing. This charming international favorite now being played all over the world, was written by James Montfomery, author of the musical comedy success "Going Up." The Vanderbilt Producing Company is bringing the piece direct from a two years run at the Vanderbilt Theater, New York, with the same cast that recently closed there. The company includes Patil Harvold, who plays Irene O'Dare, Erica Masckay, Booth Howard, Howard Freeman, Jane Fearnley, Henry Coote, Louis Worthington, Ursula O'Hare, George P. Collins, Lou Ripley, Helen DuBois, Earl Redding and Teddy McNamara, and a remarkable singing and dancing chorus of great beauty.

staff of young university graduates, who went to work without any practical experience and built up formulas for the various pigments that go into the manufacture of the inks. This and other companies and the men who went into this line of work and had done so because of the crying need for the things they were to manufacture, the speaker said and the money and time invested would be wasted if these industries were allowed to fail. He declared that before the war vast quantities of coal tar and other by products that had been wasted, the new industries had to put to use. These would again be wasted if the industries were given up. He declared that the laboratory and research end of these enterprises had already suffered because of adverse legislation and hard times and that it was especially necessary to protect and preserve them.

TWICE ARRESTED

Williston, N. D., May 8.—Wesley Timmerick, arrested about three weeks ago but released on his own recognizance to answer in district court to the charge of having operated a giant whiskey still at his home about 15 miles north of here, is now in the county jail here following his second arrest upon a similar charge. Sheriff C. C. Mackenroth raided Timmerick's place last week and found another liquor manufacturing outfit in full operation. Timmerick was bound over in a total sum of $1,000 bonds, which he has so far been unable to furnish.

Miss Slattery And Mr. Barneck Married Today

Miss Mary, Elizabeth Slattery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Slattery, of the city, and Russell E. Barneck, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barneck, of the city, were united in marriage at the Bishops residence at 8 o'clock this morning. Father Slag officiating.

The bride was charmingly attired in a suit of navy blue pique twill and wore a small hat trimmed with orange flower. She wore a corsage bouquet of sweetheart roses and pink sweet peas. The bride's only ornament was a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Sarah Slattery, sister of the bride was the bridesmaid, and was pretty in a pearl gray suit and hat of blue. She wore a corsage of pink roses and sweet peas.

Mr. Barneck was attended by his brother, Carl Barneck.

Members of the immediate family of the bride and bridegroom were present. Miss Sarah Slattery of Minneapolis arrived in Bismarck yesterday for the wedding of her sister.

The bride was born in Bismarck and has always made her home here. She attended the Bismarck high school and has a large circle of friends here. She has been employed in the Motor Vehicle department of the Bank of North Dakota. The bridegroom, whose parents have lived in Bismarck for some time, was a member of the aviation corp and served in France two years. He is connected with the Bonham Jewelry store.

Following the ceremony the wedding party went to the M. P. Slattery home where the Misses Fannie and Ann Slattery were hostesses at a four course wedding breakfast. The table was attractively decorated in a dainty color scheme of yellow and white. Covers were arranged for eighteen, members of the immediate families and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Barneck left on No. 2 for Chicago where they will make their home. Miss Sylvia Sells caught the bridal corsage which was thrown by the bride as the train left Bismarck.

Breen-Kennelly Wedding Today At St. Mary's

At nine o'clock this morning the marriage of Helen Margaret Breen, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Breen, and Roy D. Kennelly of Mandan was solemnized at St. Mary's Pro Cathedral, Rev. Father Hiltner officiating.

The bride was becomingly attired in a peach organdy and wore a hat of white tulle with accessories to match. She carried a shower bouquet of opelia roses and sweet peas on a colonial director's staff. The bride was given away in marriage by her father and was met at the foot of the altar by the bridegroom who wore a suit of dark brown.

The bridesmaid, Miss Mabel Breen, sister of the bride was lovely in orchid organdy and a white satin hat. Her flowers were crimson sweet peas. John K. Kennelly was his brother's attendant. Miss Lenore Cunningham of Jamestown, former school mate of the bride, presiding at the organ, played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal procession entered the Cathedral.

Solos were beautifully rendered by Mrs. V. J. LaRose and Mr. Henry Halverson. The bridal party left the church to the strains of Mendelssohn's recessional.

The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, north of the city. Only the immediate members of both families being present.

The bride is a charming young lady who has grown to womanhood in the city. She is a graduate of Sacred Heart College of Fargo. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Mandan high school and attended Business College at Fargo. He served for two years with the A. E. F. in France. He is a member of the firm and traveling representative of the Mandan Beverage company.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennelly left on No. 1 for two weeks trip to points in the west. As the train pulled out Mrs. Kennelly threw her wedding bouquet caught by Miss Katherine Morris and Miss Margaret Engelmann.

Mother and Daughter Get Together Affair

The Business and Professional Women's Club have completed final arrangement for the get together meeting of the mothers and daughters which is to be held at the Country Club on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Rehearsal Will Be Messiah Tonight

All singers who as members of the Community Chorus have taken part in the rehearsals for Haedels "Messiah," as well as all other singers who have had experience in the rendition of that oratorio in the past, are urgently requested to be on hand this evening at the final rehearsals. This evening's rehearsal will, as usual, be held at the B. and P. W. club rooms, at 8 o'clock sharp. It is of the utmost importance that all who take an interest in the work of the Community Chorus, all those who feel called to labor in the cause of music culture in this city, should be present, determined to make the season's closing concert the success it deserves to be.

The concert is to be given next Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church as a sacred concert, and at the conclusion of a short service. A full attendance at rehearsals is therefore imperative. The final rehearsal will be held at the Presbyterian church on Thursday evening, but those who expect to assist at the concert must be present at this evening's rehearsal.

Bismarck Hospital Will Celebrate National Day

The Bismarck Evangelical Hospital takes its place among the progressive institutions in the land, therefore we want to observe National Hospital Day. May 12th was chosen as the most fitting day for this observance, as it is the anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale, pioneer in modern hospital and nursing methods. We will have open house and everyone will be welcome to see the institution on that day.

National Hospital Day is an effort on the part of the hospitals to educate the public to the true meaning and scope of hospital service.

What, for instance, does the hale and hearty man on the street, think about the hospital? Oh it is just some place belonging to the universe, much in the order of the sun and the moon. As he passes the hospital he may shudder and be thankful that he, or his are not in it. Then he goes about his business. Little does he realize the true meaning of the hospital for he has never been in it and does not know the real work that is going on in that institution. It is much like the well and its water, the earth and its sunshine—it has all been taken for granted.

We hope National Hospital Day will be the means of showing the public the human side of the hospital; its up-to-date equipment, its varied services, its plans for expansion and its needs.

The hospitals of our city deserve the generous support of the public. They are the result of somebody's sacrifice and toil and are rendering service of inestimable value.

Let the public visit these institutions and obtain a better knowledge of their great work. The Bismarck Hospital has planned to arrange for a large number of visitors on National Hospital Day and will provide competent guides to take the visitors through the institution.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER

(Established 1873)

COMMON HONESTY SHOULD PREVAIL

There is now before the supreme court a case involving the letting of thousands of dollars of election supplies. Under a decision of Judge Nuesse, it is not necessary for the county auditor to ask for bids. Of course common honesty, should dictate the same course in Burleigh county that is followed in many other counties—The calling for bids by advertisement or request on the part of the county auditor whether the law is explicit or not.

It seems that a court decision is necessary to determine what common honesty, decency and public policy should dictate. The Tribune and other printing establishments in Bismarck are not asking for this work, but merely the right to present a bid on these supplies which at least three printing plants and as many stationery concerns in Bismarck are equipped to handle.

But orders for these supplies paid for by the taxpayers of Burleigh county have been placed by County Auditor Johnson with a Fargo printing plant not as well equipped as some of the Bismarck publishing plants and WITHOUT ANY PRICE.

Under what appears to The Tribune a rather strained interpretation of the law (but as a layman it does not presume to criticize the decision of the district court which in denouncing the practice upheld the contention of State Attorney McCurdy that County Auditor Johnson was within the law) a hair line distinction is made between election supplies and other supplies paid for out of county funds. In the case of most supplies the cost of which amounts to more than $300, the law states bids must be called for. Under the construction of the law as regards election supplies, such printing is placed in a special class to be given out at the discretion of the county auditor and the sky is the limit as to the price.

As both Judge Nuesse and County Attorney McCurdy pointed out, the practice is a vicious one, but even though against policy and precedent according to their views there is nothing in the law to prevent such a practice and unless the supreme court applies the brakes the bars are let down for graft in the purchase of such supplies.

County Auditors who pretend to manage the business of their offices as private businesses are conducted ask for bids to determine what is right and proper charge for such service. In Burleigh county those institutions equipped to do the work are discriminated against and the money goes to build up other cities and to persons not tax payers or interested in the upbuilding of Burleigh county.

Regardless of what the decision of the supreme court on the matter will be, common honesty, decency and public policy should impel every county auditor to call for bids or prices on all work in excess of $300 for that is the spirit of the law in the purchase of county supplies, whether technicalities protect county auditors in another policy not in accordance with the best business principles.

WHY A GRAND JURY?

No one has yet successfully answered the query why a grand jury was necessary in Cass county to probe into the affairs of the malodorous Scandinavian American Bank. The recall election surrendered the attorney general's department over to Sveinbjorn Johnson and put in his possession every instrumentality of law to bring those suspected of criminal acts to the bar of justice.

The states attorney department in Cass county is still functioning and is in complete accord with the attorney general's department and can do everything a grand jury or a special prosecutor can do and at less expense which was the keynote of the campaign made by Attorney General Johnson.

Arrests have been made. Information drawn and preliminary hearings held. Trips to California have been made and alleged culprits have been returned to the jurisdiction of the state all at a heavy expense. The Nestos administration has employed Arthur LeSeuer, socialist attorney, and J. W. Brinton, to aid in bringing alleged violators in connection with the defunct Scandinavian American bank to the bar of justice. Most of the cases started have evaporated into thin air.

Now a grand jury is in session with a special attorney general employed to go over the same ground which has been traversed by Cass county officials and the attorney general's department. We were told in the recall election that there would be no more special assistant attorneys general.

Grand juries usually are called when judges, states attorneys, and attorney general's departments are unwilling to act. But the opposite is true respecting alleged violation by law in the Scandinavian bank cases. Both the state and the Cass county officials are committed to a vigorous policy of prosecution as regards the Scandinavian bank scandal.

The Tribune hopes that every guilty one will be brought to the bar of justice and punished for each and every violation of the law, but just why a grand jury was called to secure through indirection what direct action would do as well is a question that puzzles. Probably the attorney general's department and its special assistant can answer the question to the entire satisfaction of everyone but in any event the explanation would be interesting especially to an already tax overburdened electorate.

Is the real answer that there is not sufficient legal talent either in the attorney general's department or the Cass county states attorney's office to draw up complaints against common culprits and that there have been so many legal failures in this case to date that a grand jury and a special prosecutor must be hired to get results. Such a frank admission on the part of Attorney General Johnson would clear the atmosphere and answer a very pertinent inquiry.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinion of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

WHERE IS THE BENEFIT?

If the voters of North Dakota ever sit down and ask themselves seriously "what benefits are we getting from all the money that has been and is being squandered in state industries?" they will wipe the slate clean of these enterprises.

It is admitted, for example, that the Bank of North Dakota has cost the taxpayers of the state some $600,000. What have they to show for it? What has the Bank of North Dakota accomplished that could not have been accomplished by a very simple rural credits department that could not be performed by the privately owned banks? What has it done for the state except to tie up public funds in long time loans, and almost ruin the state's credit? What has it profited the taxpayers? Has it made money any cheaper? Has it made it easier for the farmer or for the businessman? Has it helped to solve the problem of any man or any class of men in North Dakota, even in the most modest way?

Or take the Drake mill. What has it profited the average citizen of North Dakota? Has it made flour any cheaper? Has it brought about any better prices for wheat to the farmer? Everyone knows that it hasn't. Even its most ardent supporters no longer claim that it has. All that it has done is to lose $80,000 in two years' operation.

Or take the homebuilders' department. What has it done for the people of the state? It has built some 53 houses. Every one of them cost from $1,000 to $5,000 more than the price agreed upon between the state and the purchaser. In those cases where the purchaser has not thrown up his hands, abandoned the house and charged off the money he has in it to rent, he faces a lawsuit. It will cost the state several hundred thousand dollars and nobody has profited by it except the employees. Where is the benefit in that?

Or take the state mill at Grand Forks. Already it has cost the state hundreds of thousands of dollars more than it should have, and we have nothing to look forward to but another Drake mill on a vastly bigger scale. What good will it do us? Will it sell flour for less than the privately owned mills? Everyone knows that it won't. Will it pay more for wheat? Everyone knows that it won't and there isn't any use fooling ourselves on either of these points. But every sane businessman expects it to lose thousands or hundreds of thousands of dollars yearly. And for what? What benefits will we get from it?

The Forum has never made any secret of its attitude toward all the stateowned industries. It would "turn the key in the door of the bank," turn the Grand Forks mill over to Senator Ladd's political followers, if they would take it, and permit him to run it on the plans he has so frequently outlined whereby he can save or make untold millions. It would sell the Drake mill and close out the homebuilders' department at the earliest possible moment.

Governor Nestos and his associates do not favor quite such a sweeping program, unfortunately. On some features of the socialist program they favor further experiments, not from conviction that they are justified, we believe, but because they feel the majority of the voters of the state have not yet had their fill of the experiments with the state in industry.

But every day brings forth proof of the folly, the expense and the utter futility of the state industries, and sooner or later the demand to scrap the entire socialist program will become so insistent that it cannot be denied. Meanwhile the Nestos administration is doing an excellent job of salvaging. While it is in power the taxpayers may feel assured that no new experiments will be tried, that the homebuilders' mess will be liquidated, that the bank's activities will be held to a minimum and the expense reduced to the lowest possible figure, and that the mill experiment will be conducted at the lowest possible cost to the state. Perhaps that is the best we can hope for until the state has sunk some more money in the Grand Forks mill.—Fargo Forum.

THE GREAT AMERICAN HOME

RUTH HITS A NET BALL AND THE MATCH IS OVER—

ADVENTURE OF THE TWINS

By Olive Barton Roberts

Nancy and Nick are Twins. One time the Fairy Queen gave them each a pair of Green Shoes, which were magical. These shoes could take the Twins anywhere on the earth or off it, indeed, for that matter. They could go anywhere in the sky or in Fairyland by just wishing. They had many wonderful adventures and proved a great help to the Fairy folk who looked after the Fairy Queen's Nine Hundred and Ninety-Nine kingdoms, from helping Mr. Rubadub to spring clean the birds and animals to assisting Mr. Sprinkle-Bow in making the weather up in the sky.

Their last adventure was to settle a dispute between the Diddyevers and the Korsknotts in Fairyland, where a wicked Sorcerer, called Twelve Toes, had caused trouble. Now they have returned home over the Seven Mountains and the Seven Valleys and are greeted by the Fairy Queen in her Palace where they relate their adventures.

Their next adventure is to be "A Trip to the Moon."

The Fairy Queen was waiting for the Twins when they arrived at her Palace after a quick trip over the Seven Mountains. They just wished themselves back and whizz—they were there! Everybody crowded around to hear the news, first of all their friend, the Magical Mushroom, who had gone with the children on so many of their travels. Then there was Mr. Rubadub, and fat Mr. Tingaling, and thin Mr. Scribble-Scratch, and funny Mr. Flippety-Flop, and Mr. Sprinkle-Bow, and Cap'n, Penny-winkle, who had come on business from his country under the sea.

Indeed, all of the Fairy Queen's helpers were there, all ears to hear about the Twins' last wonderful adventure. You know they had been to the Land of Diddyevers and the Korsknotts to settle some trouble about two kings.

"You are certainly wonderful children," smiled the good queen. "Whatever would I do without you? I hope you didn't have very much trouble. Are you tired?"

"Not a bit!" declared Nancy. "Goodness no!" said Nick. "It was a lot of fun. Old Twelve Toes the Sorcerer did all he could to stop us, but our magic beat his every time."

"Would you like to help me some more?" said the Fairy Queen, thoughtfully.

"Oh, yes, indeed," cried both Twins together. "Do you have another errand?"

"Yes," answered the Queen. "I have just had word from Mr. Peerabout, the Man-in-the-Moon, that he's so busy this spring he can't get along without help. The four winds are very handy and do all they can, but what with some folks wanting a full moon, some wanting it dark, some wanting a wax moon, and some wanting it dry, even the winds aren't enough. He'd be ever so glad to have you for a while, I'm sure."

"Then we'll go," answered Nick. "won't we, Nancy?"

Pulse Of Business

WAGES RISE.

Factory workers' wages in New York state, considered a national barometer, have been rising mildly for 60 days. They now average about $25 a week, against $12.50 before the war and the war-boom peak of $28.93.

AUTOS COLL.

Auto industry is developing feverish activity. Body builders and parts makers are swamped with orders. About three-fourths more cars are being turned out by the factories than a year ago. Rubber industry is creeping toward capacity output, especially tires.

RADIO GAINS.

Wireless industry continues its rapid development. Westinghouse now manufacturing 500 complete receiving

ANSWER WILL BE MADE TO LEMKE ORDER

Answer will be made to the order of District Judge Lemke to Governor Nestos to certify records in the Cahill case, in district court at Hettinger on May 13, it was said at the office of the attorney general. The order will not be ignored or evaded. It was said, although attorneys will contend that the case ought to be removed to Bismarck, that Governor Nestos is entitled to be sued in the place of his residence and that all matters connected with the case should be thrashed out in Burleigh county. The case already has been in district court in Mandan and is now pending in Bismarck. Attorney General Johnson was here Sunday and conferred on the case.

A THOUGHT

For lo, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come.—Canticles 2:11-12. Sweet daughter of a rough and stormy sea.

Hoar Winter's blooming child, delightful Spring! Whose unshorn locks with leaves And swelling buds are crowned, Sweet is thy reign, but short—the red dog star Shall scotch thy tresses, and the mower's scythe Thy green, thy flowrets all, Remorseless shall destroy.

—Anna L. Barbauld.

TODAY'S WORD

Today's word is PSYCHOLOGICAL. It's pronounced—si-ko-loj-i-kaal, with accent on third syllable. It means—relating to psychology, the science of the mind, being perhaps most frequently seen as part of the combination "psychological moment," that is, the occasion when any action or event is most certain to have full effect on men's minds.

STEEL GAINS.

Steel output continues gaining though badly crippled by coke shortage. Ingot production is nearly 38,000,000 tons a year, against a pre-war normal of about 30,000,000 tons. Outlook is that mills will be over-sold in many semi-finished lines by June.

CANADIAN MONEY.

Discount on Canadian money is down around 1 per cent. That is, Canadian dollar is worth 99 cents in American money. In February, 1920, it reached its lowest, 83 cents. The gain reflects the rise in British exchange, also Canada's more favorable position in world trade.

MORE COAL.

Coal production is climbing, as more non-union mines begin opening to handle orders. But bituminous production still is around 4,000,000 tons a week, or about half as much as a year ago.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC.

Freight traffic continues slightly ahead of a year ago, though coal shipments lag. Bituminous coal normally makes up 30 per cent of freight tonnage. Number of idle freight cars April 15 was 419,513.

"I am so happy over what Tanlac has done for me I can hardly find words to express my praise," said Miss Marguerite K. O'Leary, who lives with her parents at 1223 Chestnut St., Reading, Pa. "I wasn't exactly what would be called sick, but for a year I had been all run down and sometimes felt so weak and miserable I could hardly hold up my head. I was so nervous the telephone bell or a door closing would startle me so I would tremble like a leaf."

"I needed something to build me up and give me strength and energy, and that is exactly what Tanlac did. It gave me a fine appetite and improved my digestion. I gained eight pounds, the color came back to my face, my nerves became normal and I soon felt as well as I ever did in my life. It is simply wonderful that medicine could make such a big change in any one. My friends and neighbors are surprised when they see me now, and no wonder, for I look like a different person. Tanlac is grand and I never intend to miss a chance to say a good word about it."

Tanlac is sold by all druggists.

MARKETS

BETTER DEMAND FOR ALL CATTLE
(By U. S. Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates and Minn. Dept. of Agriculture Weekly Review.)

South St. Paul Minn., May 8.—The cattle market is being featured by a better demand both for fat cattle and for stockers and feeders. Some betterment in individual conditions has resulted in an improved demand for the dressed products at large eastern consuming centers, and the nearer approach of the grazing season has broadened the demand for feeders and especially stockers.

REMOVAL CASE IS CONSIDERED

Devils Lake, N. D., May 8.—Judge C. W. Buttz of Devils Lake has under advisement the case from Burke county, brought about by the removal of two county commissioners, John O. Gray and N. A. Kirkle, who were removed by former Governor Lynn J. Frazier. The case hinges on the charge that Lawrence Larson, who was treasurer of the county, before he went out of office in April, 1921, deposited several thousand dollars of the county money in different banks on certificate of deposit that did not become due until Dec. 1, 1922, and that these two commissioners acquiesced in the making of the deposits and in putting the money in the banks of the county instead of in the bank of North Dakota.

The defendants, following their removal from office, appealed to the district court of Ramsey county, claiming that Governor Frazier was without jurisdiction and that the evidence was insufficient. The case was argued before Judge Buttz.

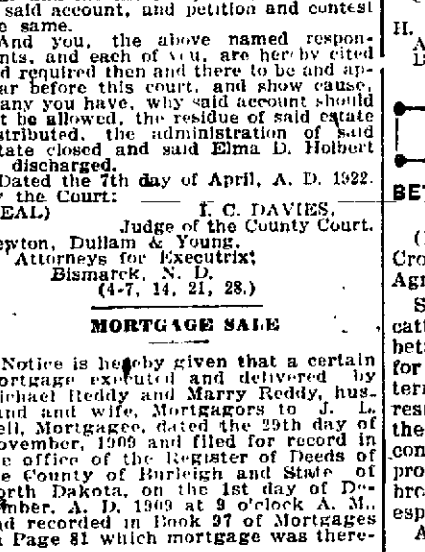

GRAFTON DADS CUT SALARIES

Grafton, N. D., May 8.—As an economy measure, the Grafton city council has decided to adopt a plan recommended in a committee report providing that the mayor and aldermen serve without pay, or the council may, if desired, pay the mayor a salary of $100 annually and the aldermen $25 for every regular meeting attended.

As a further economy the following salary cuts were made: auditor, $800 to $400; treasurer, $250 to $200; chief of police, $1,020 to $1,200.

This action will save the city $762 annually, it is stated. The council has decided to enforce the curfew ordinance, the bell to be rung at 9 p. m.

Fans Approve Plans for Baseball Team--"Dutch" Houser to Coach

BALL TEAM MAY BE ORGANIZED FOR THIS YEAR

Enthusiastic Meeting of Fans Is Held Sunday Afternoon to Select Committee

BAUER IS CHAIRMAN

Sentiment very strongly in favor of a good baseball team was expressed at a meeting of between 40 and 50 fans in the American Legion hall Sunday afternoon. As a result of discussions a committee to manage a baseball team was named, and it will immediately seek to devise ways and means of raising sufficient funds to put a team in the field. Members of the committee are Arthur Bauer, chairman; Dean Smith, Thomas Lee, V. M. Dresbach, Harry Homan.

If the committee is successful there will be a team; if not there probably will not be.

O. W. Roberts, president of the holding association, owning the baseball park, called the meeting to order. H. F. Keller was secretary.

Reports were made on the team of last year, the debt on the baseball park, the deficit on the team and the general situation. It was decided that in the future 20 per cent of all receipts at the park must be turned over to the holding committee, so that the debt on the park may be paid. The park is worth, it is estimated, $5,000 with probably not more than 1,200 against it. Bismarck has the best athletic field in the state, and the big effort put forward to give the city the park was one of the difficulties of meeting expenses last year. Considering the value of the park the baseball association has greater assets and liabilities. It was the aim of Mr. Roberts, Mr. Keller and others to provide an athletic park not only for the baseball team but for high school athletics, and the park now is being used by the boys of the city. Both Mr. Roberts and Mr. Keller expressed a desire to give up the reins of management. The fans appreciate their work in giving so much time and energy to the cause of clean sport in the city.

The idea was expressed that probably $2,500 would be sufficient to put a team in the field this year, and it will be the aim of the committee to raise this amount.

Among those who talked at the meeting was John Larson, who has also given much time to baseball, entering a period of several years. He declined to take up management of the team, however.

The "B" letter men of the high school, with Lee Scroggins as spokesman, pledged aid in raising money for the team as an appreciation of the high school for the use of the athletic park and their interest in the city and in baseball.

An entertainment committee composed of Paul Mason, Paul Homan and James Walsh was named to arrange a show and dance to raise funds. A co-operative committee of high school students composed of Lee Scroggins, and Terrence Hultman was named. This committee proposed to have a summer football game to raise money. The kids, it was reported, would help the cause by donating part of the proceeds of the forthcoming minstrel show.

Liabilities of the baseball team, in addition to the $1200 on the park, amount to about $1600.

'DUTCH' HOUSER ACCEPTS PLACE AS COACH HERE

University of North Dakota Athletic Star Accepts Position in Bismarck

Edgar T. "Dutch" Houser, graduate of Bismarck high school, star athlete here and at the University of North Dakota, has accepted the position of athletic coach and director of athletics of Bismarck high school for the next year, it is announced by Superintendent of Schools J. M. Martin. P. T. Swanish, who successfully coached athletics here in addition to teaching, had resigned.

The board of education has decided to combine the positions of director of athletics, which includes gymnasium work, and athletic coach. No teaching duties will be expected, as Houser will be employed during the entire school year.

When he was in high school Houser was a star in all branches of athletics, particularly in basketball and football. His home is in Napoleon, N. D.

Houser is graduating from the University of North Dakota college of arts this spring, and winding up a career in athletics that has very few equals. He entered the Agricultural College at Fargo in his freshman year but matriculated at the university in the fall of 1919. At the A. C. he was a member of the football and basketball teams his first year and upon entering the university made both teams, being made captain of the basketball team for the season of 1920 and 1921. He was captain of the football team in 1921.

"Dutch" has been named all-state center in basketball each year he has played at the university, and also an all-state tackle in football each season. During the past year he has been assistant coach at the university under Paul Davis and it is known that several high schools were angling for his services.

The local board of education received very fine recommendations for Mr. Houser.

CONTENDER FOR JACK DEMPSEY'S TITLE

TRACEY LOOMS AS CONTENDER FOR TITLE

Australian Champion Arrives In This Country Ready to Meet All Comers and Prove His Right to Battle Jack Dempsey

BY BILLY EVANS.

Presenting the very latest heavy-weight hope, Jim Tracey, of Australia, Tracey is 24 years old, stands 6 feet 3 1/2 inches and weighs 210 pounds.

Thus it will be seen that Tracey is at least the equal physically of Champion Jack Dempsey.

Tracey recently arrived in our midst. His purpose is to secure a match with Jack Dempsey. Of course he doesn't expect Dempsey to postpone his trip abroad in honor of his coming.

It is Tracey's intention to fight his way to a place where Dempsey will be forced to give him consideration. Tracey is confident he will have reached that spot by the time Dempsey returns to this country.

Tracey has been fighting for nine years. He began his career as a light-weight at the age of 15. Since then he has fought his way through practically all the classes.

In 1920 Tracey achieved the height of his ambition, the winning of the heavyweight championship of Australia. He defeated Albert Lloyd, who was the title holder.

Tracey was born at Johannesburg, South Africa, and comes from the Kimberley district.

He started fighting as an amateur, but finding the fistie game rather slow in his home town decided to set out for Sydney, the Australian mecca for mitt pushers.

Tracey was without funds when he reached such a decision, so set out on foot from Rockhampton, in Queensland. It took him four months and three days to cover the 1,200 miles, but he made good.

New Use For Tennis Ball

Detroit Pitchers Have Novel Stunt to Aid Control

Tennis has become a contributor to baseball.

Detroit's pitchers are going about this spring armed with tennis balls. Every pitcher is supplied with at least one.

When the pitchers are at leisure they spend their time squeezing the tennis balls.

The idea is to strengthen their hands and wrists.

Ty Cobb borrowed the idea from boxing. Several prominent boxers use this method to develop hand and wrist power.

Detroit's pitching staff is "all shot" this spring and Cobb decided upon the tennis ball idea to bring his hurlers into form.

St. Mary's Team Wins

St. Mary's school defeated the Bismarck Indian school baseball team by a score of 13 to 5. Stanley Wyciskalla, who is pitching for St. Mary's, was complimented for his pitching against the Indian team. Mandan pitched for the Indians.

BAILIFF MEMBER OF 1888

John A. Hill of Fargo Served on Last Grand Jury in State

John A. Hill, 1103 Thirteenth St. S. Fargo, who is one of the two bailiffs who guard the doors to the grand jury room where the first grand jury since statehood in Cass county district court is now at work, was a member of the last grand jury which was called in Cass county.

Mr. Hill was then a farmer living near Wheatland. The last grand jury which probed affairs in Fargo, prior to the one now in session, was empaneled Aug. 29, 1888, the year before North Dakota became a state.

Col. E. C. Gearey, father of Mayor H. W. Gearey, and Col. E. C. Gearey, Jr., of Fargo, was foreman of the jury.

Chas. A. Pollock, afterward judge of the Cass county district court, was state's attorney, and the late John O. Benton was sheriff. W. B. McConnell, was territorial judge.

Had 17 Jurors

There were 17 jurors empaneled as follows: George Brandenburg, John A. Hill, N. Stanford, A. Anderson, C. T. Clement, W. T. Sylvester, E. V. Quinby, F. R. Marsh, U. A. Lewis, L. W. Von Neida, A. C. Andrews, T. W. Swift, John Monson, H. M. Rich, E. C. Gearey, E. Goodrich and C. O. Stenrodden.

Judge McConnell asked the jury in his charge to consider only the cases of those persons that were in jail.

Brought 145 Indictments

The jury concluded its work on Sept. 5, bringing in 145 indictments in its final report, most of them being for violation of the liquor law. There was a liquor prohibition law in territorial days, under county option.

"There were a great many violations of the law," said Mr. Hill today, "and Judge Pollock, then state's attorney, was kept busy prosecuting liquor cases."

"I recall one witness who gave us more information than any other one man. He was a heavy drinker, but absolutely truthful, sparing no one when he was questioned before the grand jury. When I went to go home that man was at the depot and he was so drunk that I had to carry him onto the train."

Seven billion cigarettes were imported into China last year.
